Read pages 20 and 21 of Discovering Canadian Art.	Complete the following questions below on this paper.

- 1. Give the definition of a shape:
- 2. Draw the three most familiar (common) shapes.

- 3. Shapes have two dimensions, _____ and _____. When the shape gets a third dimension, called _____, it becomes a _____.
- 4. Draw an example of each of the following:

- 5. In art, shapes are the fundamental ______ for the _____.
- 6. Name three ways in which artists make shapes seem important:
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
- 7. List the five basic forms that have depth. Draw THREE of these forms: