

Answer the following questions in full sentences to the best of your abilities. Ensure that you provide support for your responses.

1. Describe how Dolphus Raymond connects the black and white communities in Maycomb.
2. In your opinion, is it right for Reverend Sykes to allow the children to witness the trial?
3. Comment on Judge Taylor's attitude towards his job. Do you think he takes it seriously?
4. What are the main points in Heck Tate's evidence? What does Atticus show in his cross-examination of Sheriff Tate?
5. Summarize the home life of the Ewell family. How are they like the blacks that they detest?
6. Explain the obvious holes in the case against Tom Robinson.
7. In what ways is Mayella the same or different from her father?

8. How does the court, (the judge and prosecutor specifically), show obvious prejudice towards Tom Robinson?

9. What is Tom's original relationship with the Ewell family?

10. Describe Dill's reaction at the end of the chapter. What does he represent?

