

Chapter 22 (TAKES PLACE IN THE PAST)

- Matt off with Marie Pye; Kate doesn't see much of him
- Kate builds resentment towards Matt when they do have time together - jealousy
- Kate finds Matt and Marie at the ponds
- Kate's reaction to Marie and Matt's encounter: what is she feeling? Why must she keep a secret?
- Marie's frantic visit to the Morrison household and her news. Revelation of Calvin Pye's violence

Chapter 23 (TAKES PLACE IN THE PRESENT)

- Kate and Daniel continue driving towards home/Crow Lake
- Introduction of Daniel to family – no big deal
- Matt and Marie live in Pye house / Luke and Bo live in Morrison household
- Kate's thought during dinner: how do you forget the horrible things that have occurred in the house
- Pressure on Luke as a result of Matt's teasing and Sally McLean incident
- Switch to Past (Continuation of end of Ch. 22): Luke calms everyone down
- Details about the murder of Laurie Pye
- Suicide of Calvin Pye as police arrive – occurs in front of his wife. She ends up in mental hospital while youngest daughter sent away. Similar to Morrison tragedy?

Chapter 24 (TAKES PLACE IN THE PRESENT)

- Issue of Kate and Daniel sleeping in separate rooms
- Awkwardness between Kate and Marie
- Awkwardness continues as Marie talks about Matt's happiness
- Reunion with other characters from novel (town ladies, etc)
- Ends with a trip to the ponds with Daniel

