

Writing Instructions

STEP ONE

Pick an activity that you are GOOD at (ANY of the following)

playing a game	using a camera	cooking something	muscle training
driving a snowmobile	driving a four-wheeler	convincing your parents	ANYTHING at all

STEP TWO

Create a title that describes the activity

STEP THREE

Write a short introduction. It should:

- tell what the activity is about
- give the reader a reason for trying it
- include any warnings about dangers of doing activity

STEP FOUR

Write list of materials or “ingredients” needed to carry out the activity

STEP FIVE

Describe each step of the activity, using numbered sentences. Remember that you are writing for someone who is learning how to do something. You don’t want the person to make any mistakes.

STEP SIX

Add pictures (or illustrations) to explain any unusually tricky steps.

STEP SEVEN

Test the directions, and make changes as necessary.
